Ever wanted your home and land to be a productive, resilient, efficient and beautiful place to be?

Learn to design sustainable garden and land systems for yourself, your community and even for a living.

Permaculture offers a low energy, resource friendly, high yield approach to designing landscapes for people to provide food, energy, shelter and other needs.

Internationally recognised permaculture teacher, Rick Coleman from Southern Cross Permaculture Victoria (www.southerncrosspermaculture.com.au) will be sharing his deep and broad knowledge and experience with us.
